Responsibility: Students have the responsibility to form clubs and associations that conform to school rules and the Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities.

In fall 2015, Pali student leaders gathered to review the results of a school-wide survey "Taking the Human Rights Temperature of the Your School." Over 2,600 students and teachers responded to 25 questions about Pali academics, discipline, security and school environment. Based on the survey results, student leaders drafted the Pali Student Bill and Rights and Responsibilities (SBRR), guided by the rights articulated in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. This SBRR document is a work-in-progress and reflects a commitment to the equal opportunity, respect and rights and responsibilities of all students at Palisades Charter High School.*

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was adopted and proclaimed by the United Nations on December 10, 1948. The UDHR has been signed by every member of the UN, declares the rights of all people and encompasses a broad spectrum of economic, social, cultural, political and civil rights.*
